

ESC UPDATE – SEPTEMBER 2022

Dub Taylor, Executive Director
Energy Services Coalition

ABOUT ME

- Joined ESC as ED in September 2021 – P/T consulting
  - Active Texas Chapter member prior – “reboot”
- COO of Texas PACE Authority – P/T consulting
- Clean Energy Boards & Committees - local/state/national
- 21 years as the Director of the Texas State Energy Conservation Office (SECO) – Texas’ SEO
  - Managed engineering, technical assistance and energy/water efficiency loan programs for public entities
  - Small office – big state, leveraging and partnering key
- Prior to public service, private sector experience was focused on commercial real estate, property appraisal and property tax consulting

ENERGY SERVICES COALITION

- Promotes ESPC Benefits
  - Webinars, Workshops, Documents, Materials
  - Annual Market Transformation Conference
    - Florida – September 2022
- Advocates for the Widespread Use of ESPC by State and Local Governments (501c3 - No Lobbying)
- Provides ESPC Education & Technical Support
  - ePB – Federal / ePX – State and Local

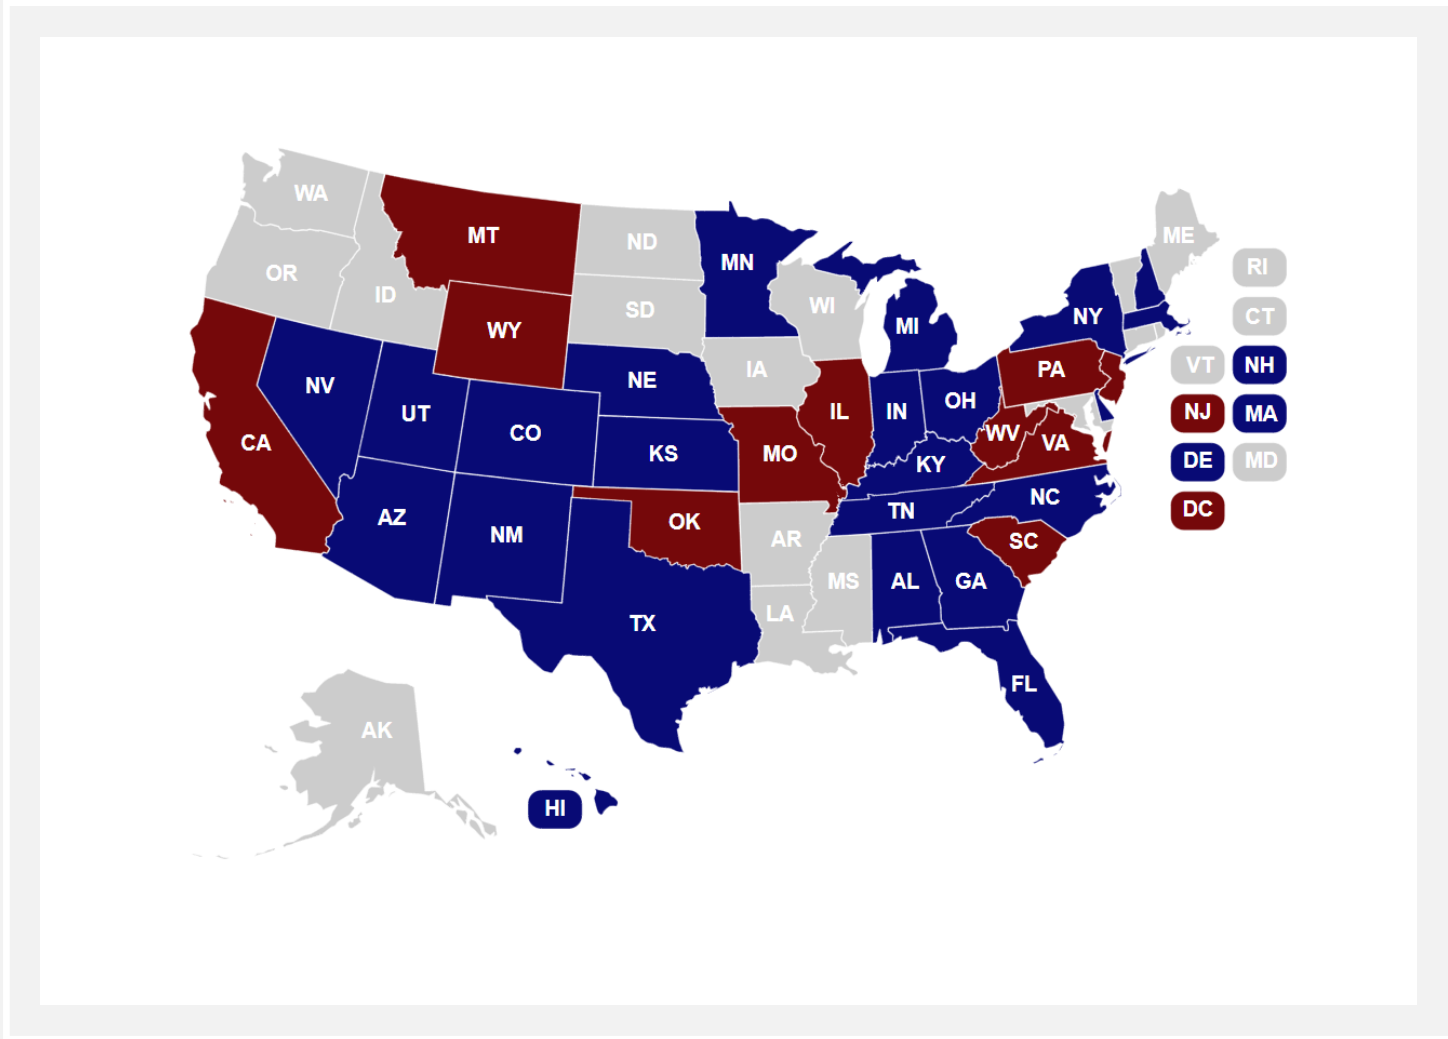

PUBLIC-PRIVATE PARTNERSHIP

STATE CHAPTERS
PUBLIC/PRIVATE
CO-CHAIRS

CODE OF CONDUCT

States with Chapters

States with Members

WHAT'S NEXT?

- ESC Value Proposition
  - Clearer messaging
- Membership
  - Better public sector engagement
- Dues
  - Common renewal date
- Bylaws
  - Mission/Vision/Strategies updates

ESC BOARD STRATEGIC PLANNING

- Board Elections
- MTC 2023 Planning
- Strengthen, Grow & Support State Chapters
- Continued Focus on Foundational ESPC work
  - Education, training
- New Federal $ Support
  - State ESPC scorecard and needs assessment update
  - Strengthen state-level ESPC infrastructure and support best practices
  - Expand project tracking and monitoring through eProject eXpress
  - Provide public sector ESPC technical assistance

dtaylor@energyservicescoalition.org

ESC FOCUS
2022 & BEYOND